

Elmer Trollinger; had restaurant on R. 100

Elmer F. Trollinger, 81, of 7380 128th St., Seminole, Fla., died Friday in Sun Coast Hospital, Seminole. He was the husband of Beulah K. (Keim) Trollinger.

He was the owner of the former Elmer's Place, a restaurant on Route 100 between Hereford and Palm. He then owned El Mar Apartments, Madeira Beach, Fla.

Born in Seisholtzville, he was a son of the late James and Emma (Hersh) Trollinger.

Survivors: Wife; sons, Carl of Muncie and Dr. Robert of Medford, N.J.; daughter Betty, wife of George Savoretti, with whom he resided, and brothers, Raymond of Mertztown, Curtis of Barto and Howard of Fort Myers, Fla.

Memorial services: 7 p.m. Wednesday, Church-by-the-Sea, Madeira Beach.