

Haw River Bride

MRS. WILLIS SPOON

Miss Trollinger And Mr. Spoon Wed Last Month

HAW RIVER.—On Sunday, May 30, at 2 p. m., Miss Irene Trollinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke W. Trollinger, and Willis Spoon, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Spoon of Route 1, Mebane, were united in marriage in a private ceremony in the Haw River Methodist Church. Rev. James W. Goodwin, pastor of the couple, officiated.

The bride, lovely in a white organza street-length dress featuring a daintly tucked bodice, puffed sleeves, and full skirt, and carrying a white prayer book topped with pink rosebuds, entered the church with the groom.

Pre-nuptial music was presented by Miss Thelma Cates, church organist, and Mrs. Thaddaus Martin, soloist. Mrs. Martin sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer." During the ceremony, Miss Cates played "Ave Maria."

Members of the families were the only guests.

Mrs. Spoon is a graduate of Haw River High School, class of 1954.

Mr. Spoon attended Haw River High School and is at present employed by Childrey Hosiery Manufacturers.

Mr. and Mrs. Spoon are living in their home in Haw River.
