

* * *

TROLLINGER, ELMER F. "Pop-Pop", 81, of Seminole died Friday (April 14, 1989) at Sun Coast Hospital, Largo. He was born in Hereford, Pa., and came here in 1952 from Pennsylvania. He owned a restaurant and tap room in Pennsylvania. He also owned Elmar Apartments in Madeira Beach. He was a 50-year member of the Masonic Temple 595, East Greenville, Pa. He was a past member of the St. Petersburg Chamber of Commerce. Survivors include his wife, Beulah K.; three brothers, Curtis and Raymond, both of Pennsylvania, and Howard, Lehigh Acres; a daughter, Betty Sanoretti, Seminole; two sons, Robert J., Medford, N.J., and Carl B., Macungie, Pa.; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. National Cremation Society, Clearwater.

* * *